

2009 UPCOMING EVENTS

The entrance to Wolf Ranch is located at Research and Powers, and its concerts will be hosted in the Gateway Park at the corner of Research and Tutt within the community.

Wednesday, July 22 • 6:30 - 7:30 p.m. • Late Start

WORLD'S TRULY MOST DANGEROUS SUMMER

BAND—Directed by Wayne Hoey, these area middle and high school musicians are dedicated and give up their summer vacation to practice, so they can perform at their best. NO RAIN DATE.

Wednesday, July 29 • 6 - 8 p.m.

SWING CONNECTION—From the Pikes Peak Jazz and Swing Society Summer Concert Series — An 11-piece musical treat with vocals performing the old standards, dance and big band music. NO RAIN DATE.

Wednesday, August 12 • 6 - 8 p.m.

REDRAW THE FARM—Connected to a Wolf Ranch family, this band is going to share some pop, rock, Americana and country rock. Rain date Thursday, August 13.

Wednesday, August 26 • 6 - 8 p.m.

DAYS GONE BY—A Wolf Ranch resident and friends from high school have been playing favorite rock and roll, classic tempo rock, dance, new cover music, and look forward to entertaining near home. Rain date Thursday, August 27.

Friday, October 30 & Saturday, October 31 • 6 - 9 p.m.

HOWL-O-WEEN AT THE WOLF RANCH

RECREATION CENTER—All residents are invited to visit the ghouldest place around and enjoy a trick or treat.

WOLF RANCH 2009 OFFICIAL FLAG DISPLAY DATES:

TRADITIONAL DATES FOR DISPLAYING THE AMERICAN FLAG AT WOLF RANCH:

Monday, September 7—LABOR DAY ★ Wednesday, November 11—VETERANS' DAY

We can always use volunteers to help post flags on the dates above. If you wish to volunteer, call 527-3515 or email neighbor@wolf-ranch.com and someone will get back to you.